THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

INTERESTING FEATURES OF THE CLARK-FOSTER WEDDING.

Today and the Couple Are Off to Cuba—Notes.

Friends who have returned from attendance at the marriage of Miss Mabel Foster and Mr. William A. Clark, son of Senator Clark, at Butte, Mont., last week, give glowing descriptions of the beauty and elegance of the event, which took place in the drawing room of the Foster residence and was followed by a large reception. American beauty and Jacquemont roses decked the house except the main drawing room, which was a tower of white roses for the ceremony. The reception was held in the Church officiated, and the bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Geoffrey Lauzier as matron of honor. The bride, who is only nineteen, and very pretty, wore white chiffon over white tulle with trimming of duchesse point in panels. A magnificent collar of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, was worn and below this the bride wore the gift of Senator Clark, which he selected in Europe, a necklace of pearls and diamonds with a diamond and emerald clasp. The matron of honor, Mrs. Lauzier, wore Arabian chiffon in which pinks were woven, and her bridesmaids wore white tulle with diamonds. Mrs. John R. Foster, the bride's mother, wore black tulle and lace, and superb diamonds.

The young couple will sail for Europe July 10 and will be away all the summer. Mr. W. A. Clark, Jr., was born in Butte, but lived abroad during his childhood. He is an accomplished linguist and musician, and while already established in the practice of law, devoted much of his time to his private interests, mining and other enterprises. His studies are noted as are his greenhouses, where his palms have been prize winners for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graves have returned from their northern trip, and are now at Chevy Chase, Md., for the greater part of the summer, having taken a furnished cottage there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Monroe and son Elmer, have gone to Edgewood, Va., for a stay of several weeks.

Miss Miriam Snyder entertained at her home, 314 Cincinnati street, Edgewood, D. C., last evening. The evening meal and vocal selections were rendered by Miss Carrie Sebastian, by Mr. Fred McKinley and also Miss Snyder. About midnight refreshments were served.

The Misses Agnes Kelly, Marie Tinkle, Carrie Sebastian, Mamie Snyder, Estelle Mattingly, George Mattingly, Mrs. W. J. Snyder, Messrs. Arthur Kraus, August Kraus, Fred McKinley, Dan Connors, M. Sullivan, Robt. Newell, Edwin Snyder and Howard T. Snyder.

Mrs. B. F. Blinham and sister, Miss Clariss McFall, with their niece, Miss Frances B. McGinnis of Sandusky, Ohio, are at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Grace Deane Fristos has arrived from Tiffin, Ohio, and is stopping with her sister, Mrs. G. A. Merrill, 539 9th street southeast.

The announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Carrie E. Dammann of Baltimore, daughter of the late Dr. L. H. Dammann of that city, and Mr. George E. Ruhl of this city, which will take place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Concord church, 20th and G streets northwest.

Mr. Daniel W. Edelin and little son, Alden, have gone to the Buffalo exposition.

Mr. Montgomery Gibson, a nephew of Justice White's, was well-known in this city, was married yesterday. His wife was Miss Hazel Lusch. The young couple went over from Bayonne, N. J., the home of the bride, to Jersey City, where a convenient justice of the peace led the matrimonial knot.

At the marriage of Miss Ellen Lee, oldest daughter of Brigadier General Fitzhugh Lee, and Lieut. James Cooper Rhoads, Cavalry, U. S. A., today, at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York city, the bride is to wear a wedding dress of loose tulle, with a Philadelphia, with the usual tulle veil and orange blossoms. Miss Anne Fitzhugh Lee is to be maid of honor and to wear yellow ribbons with her white muslin dress. Lieut. Rhoads is to be best man. The ushers will be Lieut. Clifton C. Carter, Artillery Corps; Leon B. Kromer, 10th United States Cavalry; Pierce H. Murphy, 7th United States Cavalry, and John Dudley Long, 12th United States Cavalry.

After a short tour the couple are to go to Cuba, where Lieut. Rhoads is now stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Bernheim of Welch, W. Va., have just returned to the city from an extensive bridal tour north. They will be unable to return to the city until the damage to the railroads, caused by recent floods and washouts, has been repaired and traffic resumed.

Last night at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Miss Agnes Alden and Mr. Joseph Finckel, both well-known musicians, one a pianist, the other a violinist, were married. The Georgetown Orchestra heard the ceremony. At a few minutes past 8 the vested choir, accompanied by the orchestra, marched from the chapel down the side aisle and up the center one singing the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin," followed by the ushers, Mr. William Green, Mr. Percival Wilbur, Mr. Robert Frost and Mr. Frank Butler; then the maid of honor, Miss Grace Alden, sister of the bride, dressed in white crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. Then came the bride with her father, Mr. William H. Alden. The bride looked very sweet in her bridal gown of white crepe de chine over white tulle and tulle veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was met at the chancel by the groom and best man, brother of the groom, Mr. Benjamin Finckel. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Perry, the rector of the church. Afterward there was a reception at the house of the bride. The happy couple left for New York on the 11:30 train and sailed for Europe on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse at 10 o'clock this morning. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents. The organist was Mr. Anton Gietzner, who gave a number of selections, and Mr. Robert C. Stearns directed the orchestra. The following musicians took part: Lieut. Rhoads, violin; D. G. Lewis, Jessie Cowling, Louise Carson, Sol Minster, Brooke Ames, Florence Stevens, Edith Carson, Caroline Field, C. H. Sexton, violin; Miss Maud Sewell, F. Uke, viola; W. Villalpando, Minnie Schott, cello; August Heck, Charles Kruger, bass.

A pleasant evening was spent at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Fugitt in honor of the eighteenth birthday of her granddaughter, Magdalena Dyer. During the evening music and games were enjoyed, after which a beautiful repast was served in the dining room. Among those present were the Misses M. Forsinger, V. Stewart, D. Carter, S. Eaton, L. Spencer, C. Greenwell, A. Stewart, A. Spencer, L. Greenwell, G. Carter, S. Johnson, B. Madden, N. Council, M. Fugitt, C. Dyer, and her cousins, the Misses Barnhart, from Virginia, and Messrs. B. Chambers, E. Fugitt, E. Lee, G. Entwistle, A. Heiss, J. Forsinger, E. Fugitt, Robert Hicks, W. Cantwell and J. Simons Tappan.

Miss Eleanor Terry, daughter of Admiral Terry, leaves New York on the 28th of June in the Etruria to spend the summer in Europe.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of John S. Gallagher and Miss Mary E. Pallas, both of this city.

Solicitor E. P. Hanna of the Navy Department and Miss Margaret Hanna, private secretary to the Assistant Secretary of the Department of State, have just returned to Washington from a rapid tour of the northern countries of the continent of Europe. They were absent about six weeks, but in that time covered a good deal of Holland, Switzerland and Germany.

FRIENDLY VISITORS.
